FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

December 30, 2009

ARLINGTON NATIONAL CEMETARY SUPERINTENDENT TO ADDRESS MEADE MOAA CHAPTER

Mr. John C. Metzler, Jr. Superintendent of Arlington National Cemetery (ANC) is the featured speaker for the next luncheon meeting of the Fort George G. Meade Chapter of the Military Officers Association of America (FGGM/MOAA).

The luncheon meeting will be held at Club Meade, 6600 Mapes Road, Fort George G. Meade on Thursday January 21, 2010 with social time at 11:30 AM and lunch at noon. Mr. Metzler, Jr. became the Superintendent in 1991 and follows in the footsteps of his father John Metzler, who once served as Superintendent at Arlington from 1951 to 1972.

The general public is invited and you do not need to be a MOAA member to attend this event. The cost of the meal is $13. Call Jim Shiffrin (410)-766-5732 or e-mail: jim.Shiffrin@gmail.com for information and reservations.

“It is an honor to have Mr. Metzler take time from his busy schedule to speak to our chapter,” said Chapter President, Major Jim Pedo, (USAF-Retired). LTC Alfred Shehab (USA-Retired), Director of the Chapter and a past Chapter President added, “This luncheon meeting is a terrific opportunity for chapter members and the general public to learn about ANC and the types of military funerals carried out there each day.”

MOAA is the nation’s leading association for military officers and fourth largest veteran’s organization in the United States with over 370,000 members. The FGGM/MOAA chapter was chartered in 1991.
